

Federalists & Anti-Federalists Who Said That?

TEACHER INSTRUCTIONS

Benchmark

SS.7.C.1.8: Explain the viewpoints of the Federalists and the Anti-Federalists regarding the ratification of the Constitution and the inclusion of a bill of rights.

Activity

Students will analyze quotes from the Federalist Papers and the Anti-Federalist Papers and be able to summarize the viewpoints of each group.

Materials

- * “Who Said That?” Handout – one per student

Instructions

1. Pass out the “Who said that” handout, one per student. Read the directions as a class.
2. Provide students 10-15 minutes to work individually or with a partner to read each quote, mark the text that helps them identify which group would have said the quote and label each quote as “Federalist” or “Anti-Federalist” in the answer line.
3. Circulate and monitor student work while they are working to complete the handout.
4. Call the class back together and review their answers. Students should mark on their worksheets and make corrections as needed throughout the class discussion.
5. Have students complete the summary speech bubbles for the Federalist and the Anti-Federalist on the second page by summarizing the viewpoint for each group on ratification of the new Constitution and the addition of a bill of rights.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Who Said That?

Directions: Read ad each quote carefully. In the answer space under the picture, label the quote Federalist or Anti-Federalist based on which group would have made the statement. Highlight or underline the evidence in the quote that helped you determine who made the statement

Answer:

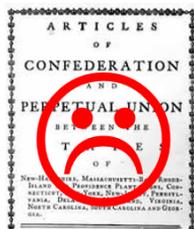

Answer:

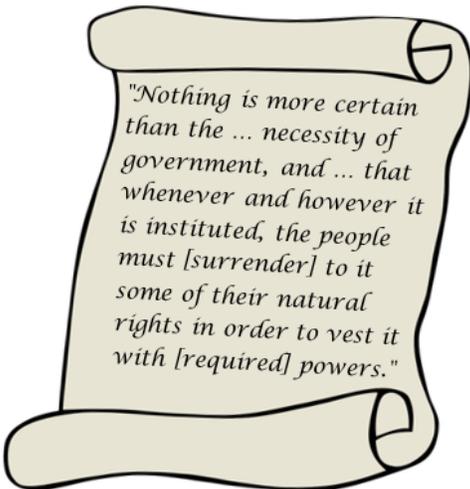

Answer:

Federalists

Anti-Federalists

Answer:

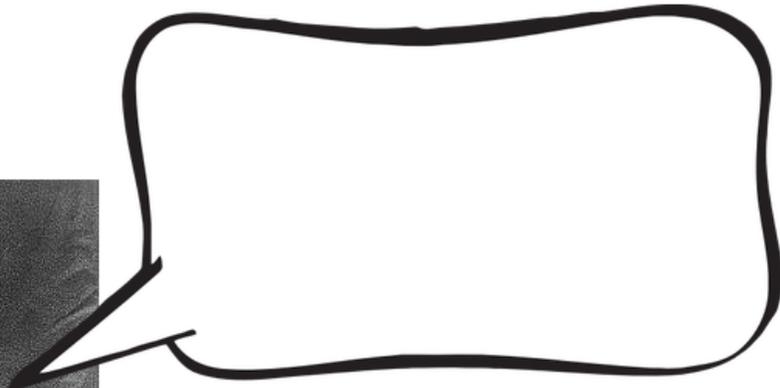

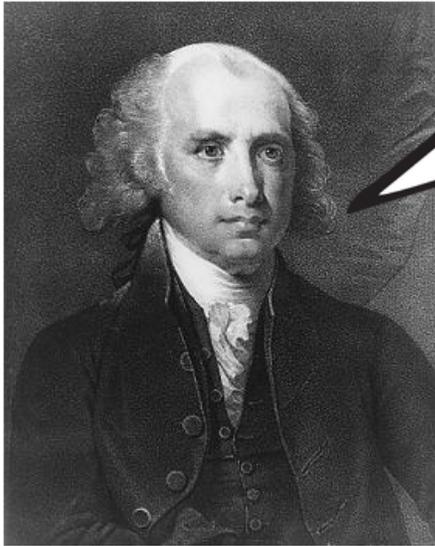

Answer:

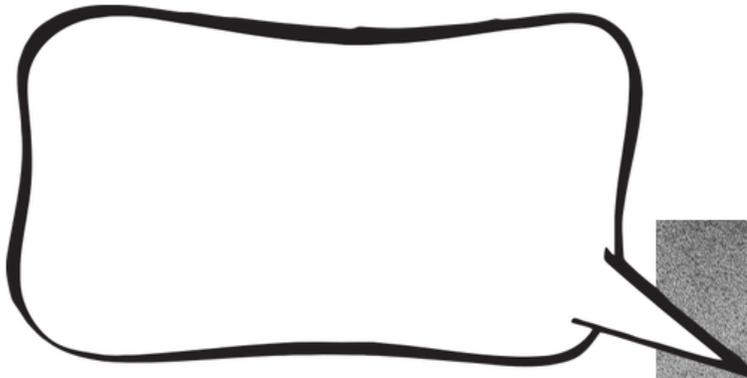

Answer:

Directions: In the speech bubbles for each group, explain the viewpoints of the Federalists and Anti-Federalists about ratification of the Constitution and the addition of a bill of rights.

Federalist
James Madison

Anti-Federalist
Patrick Henry