

Running for Office: SS.7.C.2.8 Political Parties VIDEO VIEWING GUIDE #1 Name: _____

Date:

Republican, Democratic and Third Parties Video #1

Question	List Specific Evidence from the Video	Complete Sentence
1. What is a political party?
2. What is meant by the phrase "two-party system"?
3. Describe the core belief of the Democratic Party.
4. Why would Democrats sometimes support raising taxes and increased spending?
5. Describe the core beliefs of the Republican Party.
6. Describe the core beliefs of the Libertarian Party.
7. Describe the core beliefs of the Communist Party.
		1

he Socialist Party.	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Party differ from the Communist Party? 10. Even though they don't often win elections, how can hird parties still play a role in our two-party system? 11. Marcus believes that ndividual rights and property are the most important things he government must protect. Which party would he most ikely join and why? 12. Susie believes that the government need. Which party would she most likely join and why? 13. Meghan believes that people can take better care of hemselves without government help. She also believes that the government should spend more on	8. Describe the core belief of the Socialist Party.
Party differ from the Communist Party? 10. Even though they don't often win elections, how can hird parties still play a role in our two-party system? 11. Marcus believes that ndividual rights and property are the most important things he government must protect. Which party would he most ikely join and why? 12. Susie believes that the government needs to be able o take care of the people who are most in need. Which party would she most likely join and why? 13. Meghan believes that people can take better care of hemselves without government help. She also believes that the government should spend more on Communist Party? 10. Even though they don't often win elections, how can hird parties still play a role in bur two-party system? 11. Marcus believes that ndividual rights and property are the most important things he government must protect. Which party would he most ikely join and why? 12. Susie believes that the government need. Which party would she most likely join and why? 13. Meghan believes that believes that believes that the government help. She also believes that the government should spend more on
10. Even though they don't often win elections, how can hird parties still play a role in our two-party system? 11. Marcus believes that ndividual rights and property are the most important things he government must protect. Which party would he most ikely join and why? 12. Susie believes that the government needs to be able o take care of the people who are most in need. Which party would she most likely join and why? 13. Meghan believes that poeple can take better care of hemselves without government help. She also pelieves that the government should spend more on	5 often win elections, how can hird parties still play a role in bur two-party system? 11. 11. Marcus believes that notividual rights and property are the most important things he government must protect. Which party would he most ikely join and why? 12. Susie believes that the government needs to be able o take care of the people who are most in need. Which party would she most likely join and why? government needs to be able o take care of the people who are most in need. Which party would she most likely join and why? 13. Meghan believes that becople can take better care of hemselves without government help. She also pelieves that the government should spend more on pole take tag overnment	Communist Party? hird parties still play a role in bur two-party system? 11. Marcus believes that ndividual rights and property are the most important things he government must protect. Which party would he most ikely join and why? 12. Susie believes that the government needs to be able o take care of the people who are most in need. Which party would she most likely join and why? 13. Meghan believes that people can take better care of hemselves without government help. She also pelieves that the government should spend more on	10. Even though they don't bur two-party system? 11. Marcus believes that ndividual rights and property are the most important things he government must protect. Which party would he most ikely join and why? 12. Susie believes that the government needs to be able o take care of the people who are most likely join and why? 13. Meghan believes that povernment help. She also povernment help. She also povernment help. She also povernment help. She also policives that the government should spend more on	often win elections, how can
11. Marcus believes that ndividual rights and property are the most important things he government must protect. Which party would he most ikely join and why? 12. Susie believes that the government needs to be able to take care of the people who are most in need. Which party would she most likely join and why? 13. Meghan believes that povernment help. She also povernment help. She also povernment help. She also povernment help. She also poleieves that the government should spend more on	third parties still play a role in ndividual rights and property are the most important things he government must protect. Which party would he most ikely join and why? 12. Susie believes that the government needs to be able to take care of the people who are most in need. Which party would she most likely join and why? 13. Meghan believes that people can take better care of hemselves without government help. She also pelieves that the government should spend more on are the most important things he government must protect. Which party would he most ikely join and why? 12. Susie believes that the government needs to be able to take care of the people who are most in need. Which party would she most likely join and why? 13. Meghan believes that beople can take better care of hemselves without government help. She also believes that the government should spend more on he government must protect. Which party would he most ikely join and why? 12. Susie believes that the government needs to be able to take care of the people who are most in need. Which party would she most likely join and why? 13. Meghan believes that beople can take better care of hemselves without government help. She also believes that the government should spend more on Which party would he most ikely join and why? Image: Constraint of the party government needs to be able to take care of the people who are most in need. Which party would she most likely join and why? Image: Constraint of the people who are most in need. Which party would she most likely join and why? 13. Meghan believes that beople can take better care of hemselves without government help. She also believes that the government should spend more on Image: Constraint of the people of the people can be able of the people can be able of the people of the people can be able of ikely join and why? IIII is the problem of the pro 12. Susie believes that the government needs to be able to take care of the people who are most in need. Which party would she most likely join and why? Image: Comparison of the people who are most in need. Which party would she most likely join and why? 13. Meghan believes that becople can take better care of themselves without government help. She also believes that the government should spend more on Image: Comparison of the people can be also believes that the government help. She also believes that the government should spend more on government needs to be able to take care of the people who are most in need. Which party would she most likely join and why? 13. Meghan believes that beople can take better care of themselves without government help. She also believes that the government should spend more on to take care of the people who hare most in need. Which party would she most likely join and why? 13. Meghan believes that beople can take better care of hemselves without government help. She also believes that the government should spend more on would she most likely join and why? 13. Meghan believes that beople can take better care of themselves without government help. She also believes that the government should spend more on	to take care of the people who why? 13. Meghan believes that beople can take better care of themselves without government help. She also believes that the government should spend more on	are most in need. Which party
13. Meghan believes that beople can take better care of hemselves without government help. She also believes that the government should spend more on	would she most likely join and beople can take better care of themselves without government help. She also believes that the government should spend more on	why? hemselves without government help. She also pelieves that the government should spend more on government help. She also believes that the government should spend more on believes that the government should spend more on should spend more on national defense. Which party	national defense. Which party would she most likely join and why?	